Supreme Court Docket No. 64,053
Order Filed June 5, 2009
Appellate Division Decision Filed 64,053

To the Appellate Division, Superior Court:

A petition for certification of the judgment in A-5685-07 having been submitted to this Court, and the Court having considered the same;

And it appearing that the Law Division, in ruling on the motion for remittitur or for a new trial filed by defendant Enilma Miller in respect of the pain and suffering damages award in favor of plaintiff Ming Yu He and the per quod damages in favor of plaintiff Jingfan He, did not conduct a comprehensive examination and review of the jury's verdict as mandated by Johnson v. Scaccetti, 192 N.J. 256, 280-82 (2007);

And the Law Division having remitted plaintiffs' jury verdict for pain and suffering from $1,000,000 to $200,000 and the per quod award from $100,000 to $20,000 or, in the alternative, having granted a new trial;

And the Appellate Division having granted plaintiffs' motion for leave to appeal;

And the Appellate Division, noting that the trial court had not conducted the type of searching analysis required by Johnson, supra, (1) having reversed the order of the Law Division remitting plaintiffs' jury verdict or, in the alternative, granting a new trial, and (2) having reinstated the jury's verdict;

And this Court having concluded that, in the context of a remittitur/new trial motion, a Johnson analysis is an indispensable condition precedent to meaningful appellate review;

And, for good cause appearing;

It is hereby ORDERED that defendant's petition for certification is granted, the judgment of the Appellate Division is summarily reversed in part, the matter is remanded to the Law Division for a complete and searching analysis of how the award is different or similar to others to which it is compared[,]” id. at 281, and, thereafter, the Appellate Division is to reconsider its judgment in light of the findings developed on remand.

Jurisdiction is not retained.

C-274-08

Maureen Walsh v. Michael J. Disciglio, M.D., et al.

Supreme Court Docket No. 63,179

Order Filed November 6, 2008

Appellate Division Decision Filed August 19, 2008

...Ordered that the petition for certification is granted in part, and the matter is summarily remanded to the Appellate Division for its consideration of the arguments of the appellant in accordance with the principles enunciated in Baxter v. Fairmont Food Co., 74 N.J. 588, 597-98 (1977) ("The judgment of the initial factfinder... is entitled to very considerable respect. It should not be overthrown except upon the basis of a carefully reasoned and factually supported (and articulated) determination, after canvassing the record and weighing the evidence, that the continued viability of the judgment would constitute a manifest denial of justice."); see Mahoney v. Podolnick, 168 N.J. 202, 229-30 (2001) ("Our cases emphasize that a jury verdict should not be disturbed 'unless it constitutes a manifest injustice that shocks the judicial conscience.' . . . Moreover, a court should set aside a jury verdict only if it determines that the award is inadequate or excessive by viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to the non-moving party."); Carey v. Lovett, 132 N.J. 44, 66 (1993) ("The appellate role [in reviewing a verdict for claimed inadequacy] is even more restricted. When reviewing the amount of a damage award, an appellate court should show appropriate deference to the trial court's 'feel of the case.'"). We do not, by our order, intend to imply that we agree or disagree with the evaluation of the appellate panel, but rather we conclude that the appellate panel's use of a simple mathematical formula in place of the methodology we have established was inappropriate; and it is further

Ordered that in all other respects, the petition for certification is denied.
