Re: Carmichael et al. vs. Governor David Y. Ige, Case No. 1:20-cv-00273 JAO-WRP

Dear Judge Otake:

I write to request an adjustment to the format for the July 2, 2020 hearing on Plaintiffs' Application for a Temporary Restraining Order and for Order to Show Cause Why Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue [Dkt. 12]. Given the significance of the issues, I intend to enter an appearance on behalf of Governor David Ige and handle the hearing. I would therefore ask that the Court allow the parties to appear in person, with a video feed to accommodate those who should choose to participate remotely.

I understand that our office previously agreed to have the hearing handled via a Zoom meeting. Nevertheless, I believe an in-person hearing would better enable the parties to respond to the Court's questions and assist in an evaluation of the significant public policy and legal issues in this matter. While I understand counsel for Plaintiffs object to this request, I do not believe the parties would be prejudiced by an in-person hearing. Plaintiffs are represented by competent local counsel who is experienced in litigating constitutional issues and can attend the hearing if co-counsel are unavailable. The State also has provided Plaintiffs' mainland counsel an exemption to travel to Hawai'i and to appear personally, as a court activity permitted under the existing emergency order. Needless to say, I will abide fully by any of the Court's requirements concerning entry to the courthouse and physical distancing during the hearing.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,
